

Town of Long Beach, Indiana
POSITION DESCRIPTION

TITLE: Deputy Marshal Reserve

FLSA CLASSIFICATION: Volunteer

JOB CLASSIFICATION: Part-Time

REPORTS TO: Chief Marshal

EFFECTIVE DATE: 01/01/2021

SUMMARY/OBJECTIVE:

The Reserve Deputy Marshal encompasses the front-line police officers with the Long Beach Police Department. A Reserve Deputy Marshal shall perform all the duties of their position as prescribed by Indiana Code, Town ordinance, and established department rules and policies. They are responsible for the establishment of peace, order, and the overall safety within the Town of Long Beach. This shall be accomplished through the performance of their law enforcement duties in a safe, professional, and ethical manner. A strong emphasis is placed on the “community policing philosophy” to build trust with the residents they serve.

The Reserve Deputy Marshal shall be appointed by the same authority that appoints regular sworn members of the department. A Reserve Deputy Marshal may not be a regular member of the Long Beach Police Department but shall have the same police powers as regular members, except as limited by the rules and regulations set forth by department policy and as established by State Statute and only after the successful completion of the 40-hour pre-basic course. To include additional training as established by the Chief Marshal.

Reserve Deputy Marshals shall only have police authority when working within the jurisdiction of the Town and at the direction of the Chief Marshal or Chief Deputy Marshal. They shall not work outside the Town of Long Beach in a Law Enforcement capacity and shall not represent themselves as a Long Beach Police Reserve Deputy Marshal when outside the Town’s jurisdiction.

Each Reserve Deputy Marshal shall understand that their services are voluntary and shall not be compensated. They will, however, be compensated for time loss from their full-time employment for approved court appearances.
